

JOB DESCRIPTION

DumontJanks seeks a senior landscape architect to join our collaborative team. We are an award-winning interdisciplinary planning and design firm with a national reputation, particularly in higher education. In addition to campus projects, our clients also include civic organizations and mixed-use developers. The firm's work crosses the gamut from strategic planning, to financial planning, master planning, urban design, and landscape architecture design and built work at multiple scales. Current and recent clients include: Auburn University, Brown University, the Cleveland Foundation, the Executive Office of Education (Massachusetts), Georgetown University, Michigan State University, New England Development, the University of Florida, the University of Virginia, and the Washington National Cathedral.

The ideal candidate will be team-oriented with a rigorous approach, excellent technical and communication skills, project management experience, an interest in big ideas, and a commitment to creating culturally-relevant projects that drive change.

Responsibilities

- Generate ideas to solve hard problems
- Provide design leadership and mentorship for a young core of talented teammates
- Manage projects, interacting both with our clients, our internal teams, and our subconsultants
- Collaborate on both large-scale planning and built-work projects
- Support firm leadership in marketing efforts

Qualifications

- License to practice as a landscape architect
- At least five plus years of professional experience
- Strong design ability
- Project management or similar leadership experience
- Strong communication, collaboration, and organizational skills
- Strong technical skills and ability with working drawings
- Strong graphic and technology skills (AutoCAD, Rhino, SketchUp, Adobe suite, etc.)
- Experience with campus projects (planning and built-work) is not required, but would be an advantage
- Capacity for project-related travel

To apply, please submit a letter of interest and your resume to jobs@dumontjanks.com.
